English

I haven't played a ton of Fake World, but it's a pretty dang fun VR game for the price. Mechanically, it's a spatial awareness reliant full surround shooter. The graphics are plain, but pleasing to the eye in VR. The throw-move system is interesting and a unique way to handle 3D VR movement with full-surround shooting. If it's still cheap (I got it for $0.99) consider picking it up for the novelty of the experience.
